Prophecy on the evening of 1999

And I am a lord of great grace and great might and I have called each and every one of you for a purpose. Truly the church is those who are called out, and I when I see the church I see one bread and one body. For that is the body of the Lord Jesus Christ which is the church and He is the head. And truly He is in this day and time is re-establishing His headship and He is taking back from men those places where they have set themselves, which were meant to be His throne. Those places where they have raised themselves up into. He's asking them to step down and removing them to the back, for He is the head and only He has the preeminence. And He is the good shepherd and He is the one that will lead, and those that will follow are those that hear His voice. For His sheep hear His voice and follow after Him. And in these days He has great glory to show forth to His people, and in these days He has great prosperity to pour out upon His people. For the world is beginning to come into days of torment and days of turmoil and days of storms and great shakings. But the church and those who want to hear the voice of the Lord are preparing for great prosperity. And forgiveness for mistakes of the past are available even at this moment for He wants to pour out great grace and great gifts and great abundance and material grace so that it may be distributed as there is a need. For He is not limited by the things of the world. He is not limited by what is happening in the world, and the great fear that is coming upon the world is trying to come into the church. For the only reason that the enemy has sought to bring this fear is to turn the church, for he already has the world but those who are already in the church and those who are seeking the face of the Lord will prosper and do great in this day and this time. And it is those who will do great with the lord who will shine and will draw those who are in the world into the light from the darkness.

But I say to you my children don't look to the world for your news, don't look to the world for your information, don't look to the world for how to be equipped for the times to come. For the world does not know, but I do, and I say fear not. And I say come to me. I say come and gather under my wings for truly there is grace and peace, and protection. And I am the one who is able to make for you a place at the table in the presence of your enemies, and the great blessings that will come to you even in the presence of your enemies. And yet there's no fear there because the Lord has His wings about you. But yet, if you'll not get up and go to that place, you will not receive the blessings. Because it is in getting up and going, even into the presence of your enemies, that I am able to give you the great blessings that are there. But the world will not go there without weapons. The world will not go into those places without means of protection which come from the flesh. But I say, lay down your weapons, lay down your desires and thoughts of the flesh, to protect yourself, those things that you have thought up only to protect your own material goods. I say lay those things aside and come to me for I am the burden bearer, and together we'll bear a yoke which is easy and light. You'll see tremendous things come to pass for there is nothing greater then to see one come into the kingdom. But I say to you that I have many called that I am willing to bring before you to come into the kingdom and receive eternal life. So get your eyes off the things of the world and get them on me. For I am the God of miracles. I am bringing to pass a time when miracles are meant to be common place. But I am looking for a people who are willing to rise up to do what hasn't been done. To enter to that place where miracles are common place. For I am the same God that is able to do not ordinary miracles, but to do special spiritual miracles. To do great things even at the hands of babes. Because I am the God that changes not and I have already called the end before the beginning, and I have great reward laid up for those who will stand with me. Some of you are afraid to get in the boat. Not because there is a storm, but because you are afraid that there might be a storm. Because you have read about the storms that have come up for those who stay near the Lord Jesus. Some of you are willing to shove off the boat that others have gotten into, but you will not get into the boat, because you are afraid of the storm. Some of you who are in the boat are wondering if anyone can still get out and walk on water. I say to you I've not changed. I'm still the one that can calm the storm. But those of you who are afraid to get in the boat will not see it because you will be back on shore. And you might be willing to shove off the boat and send others out into ministry, but I say it is available for you to get in that ship of ministry and to see me do miracles for you. So consider in your own heart where you want to be in this day and in this time. Stand on the shore and watch those go forward in what seems to be a small boat, and yet where great miracles will take place. Or if you'll get in that boat and help row and you'll see that wind come, and you'll see the sail go out, and you'll see the days when the wind is blowing wonderfully. And (see) balmy days (when) the suns out. But you'll also see the storms and you'll need to come to me and I'll calm those storms and the great calm will be experienced. But I say, tremendous blessings are there just ahead of you stay faithful. Don't be offended for truly I was the one who, on purpose, offended my disciples by telling them who I was to see who would walk with me and who would not walk with me. And the great blessings came to those who stood by my side and were not offended Amen
